Beartooth Paddlers Society
RECOGNITION OF RISK AND RELEASE FROM LIABILITY

In order to maintain safety on club paddling events, it is mandatory that club members and participants recognize and be aware of the many dangers involved. All forms of water sports can be dangerous. Each member participating on any trip must protect themselves as best they can against natural events and hazards. These events can occur quickly and unexpectedly and may not provide warning time or an opportunity to seek help from more experienced or better equipped boaters. Members must learn to recognize, prepare against and safely respond to potential hazards and to rely on their own skill, preparation and expertise, rather than assuming that anyone else, including a trip coordinator or event organizer will take care of their safety. All members of the club subscribe to the currently adopted club recognition of risk and liability release. Therefore, I acknowledge that the Beartooth Paddlers Society is not responsible for my personal being before, during or after any club venture. I hereby release any and all personal injuries, claims, demands and causes of action of every name and nature which may in any manner arise out of or in connection with the Beartooth Paddlers Society and its constituents whether due or not due to the negligence, omissions or willful misconduct of the Beartooth Paddlers Society and its constituents.
